

GARNETT, CLARENCE — Clarence was born April 25, 1893 in Jonesboro. Clarence was the son of Bela and Mary Alice Libbey Garnett. Clarence married Helen A. Smith and they had 9 children. He has 25 grandchildren and over 27 great-grandchildren.

Clarence spent most of his life working as a common laborer - woodsman and clamdigger.

Clarence has a fond memory of a past July 4th when his Uncle Lincoln Garnett tightroped across the Jonesboro river balancing his daughter on a chair.

Mr. Garnett lives in his own home on the Masons Bay road in Jonesport.

From the collection of Donnie Woodward

Clarence Garnett

Helen A. (Smith) and Clarence Garnett

July
St. Pete
July 1957