Attention, Class of 1922! We wish to propound a question. 'Tis this; has anyone of you ever, under any circumstances or at any time, discovered our Helen when her smile was lacking? Ah, the answer is unanimous! Let us proceed further. Has anyone ever been able to unearth about her person a single care or fret? Again the answer is unanimous. There's one thing sure, and that is that if it's worry that brings gray hairs we'll never find one marring the beauty of this lady's raven locks. Happy-go-lucky, always dependable, she's liked wherever she goes; and we expect advanced math will be needed to calculate the friends she will make in the future.
