

Jeanette Netta McNaughton

From the album of Rosalie Carver

JEANETTE McNAUGHTON

Born March 17, 1904. English Course. School Play (4); Speaker at Junior Reading (3); Honor Essay, History, at Graduation.

Have you ever seen her sailing by the Tennis Court and into the High School building? Yes, its "Netta." "Netta" has a way that's hard to describe. If ever you are in a puzzling situation just call on her. She can extricate you from any kind of difficulty.

But ah! a flaw on the perfect pattern, a leaning towards, the atoms of humanity, Men! No end to their names. But among the great mass, one has survived where all others have perished. We wish him luck and long possession of one of the most popular and brilliant girls '22 has to offer.

